

GA COUNCIL OF TEACHERS OF ENGLISH CONFERENCE AWARD FOR FUTURE ENGLISH TEACHERS OF COLOR

Who is Eligible?

To be eligible for this award, college or university students must be Language Arts Majors, first-time presenters at the GCTE Conference, persons of color and (1) student teaching interns (or have recently completed student teaching) or (2) graduate students enrolled in English or English Education programs.

Guidelines for Proposed Student Conference Presentation

The GCTE Selection Committee will consider student proposals for conference presentations that meet one or more of these criteria:

- Timeliness: Focus on a current issue in the teaching or learning of English Language Arts.
- Theory: Explore the application of a theoretical framework to the teaching and learning of the English Language Arts.
- Research: Focus on the use of new research or the creative use of known research to improve the teaching and learning of English Language Arts.
- Pedagogy: Explore creative classroom practices in the teaching and learning of the English Languages Arts.

How to Apply

College or university students making application for the GCTE Conference Award for Future English Teachers of Color should submit a completed program proposal form and a one-page statement about their career aspirations. Winners will receive $250.00 to offset costs for attending the conference. Program proposal and career aspirations statement must be received by November 15, 2007 to:

Dr. James L. Hill
Department of English & Modern languages
Albany State University
Albany, Georgia 31705

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION IS MANDATORY

PROGRAM PROPOSAL FORM
GCTE CONFERENCE AWARD FOR FUTURE TEACHERS
February 7-9, 2008

(PLEASE PRINT)

SUBMITTED BY

Preferred Title _____ Name _____
Last First

University _____ Classification _____

School Address _____

Home Address _____

Contact Numbers: Home: () _____ Work: () _____ Fax: () _____ E-mail: _____

Are you a GCTE Member? Yes__ No__ Have you previously presented at GCTE? Yes__ No__

Would you like to be on a conference committee this year? _____ Next year? _____

Would you be willing to preside or facilitate at one of the sessions? Yes_____ No_____

ABSTRACT (No More than 30 Words for the Printed Program B Attach Additional Sheet if Necessary.)
